"HOC SIGNO FORTUNA"

Portsmouth, N. H. Nov. 25.

The U. S. ship Washington, Commodore Chauncey, dropped down from the Navy Yard on Thursday at 12 o'clock into the lower harbour. She moved from the Yard in an elegant style, and was saluted from Forts Constitution and M'Clary. She will proceed to Boston this morning the wind permitting.

Philadelphia, Dec. 1, 1815.

We have been informed by a gentleman arrived from Havre de Grace, that Marshal Ney had escaped from his imprisonment; but of his destiny he is not informed.

He further states, that the presence of the allied forces alone, prevents revolutionary scenes in France.

Extract from an essay on the Floridas taken from a leading London print of Sept. 21,

By the war out of which we have just emerged with the United States, we have given that country a tone of importance greater than it would have attained by thirty years growth—D. Press.

Personal attachment—The Polish colonel Pistowski (says a London paper October 7) who had solicited and obtained permission to join Bonaparte at the isle of St. Helena, set out in the brig of war Cormorant, which has sailed for that island.

The Largest Ships of War in the World, are now owned by the U. States. THE NEW ORLEANS, and THE CHIPPEWA, now on Lake Ontario, are 16 feet, longer than the British ship Lord Nelson. They are proportionably wide, but not so deep as the largest ship in the English navy. Our 74's would appear like frigates along side of these huge ships which have been named in honor of two of the greatest victories yet achieved by the American land forces.—Boston Yankee.
